

Guess Who? (John the Baptist)

By Gigi Shadid

*A voice was crying in the wilderness,
R-E-P-E-N-T,
A voice was crying in the wilderness,

Repent! Repent! Repent!

He had shaggy hair and camel clothes,
Ate honey and locust so the story goes,
He preached to all those wandering across the Holy Land,
And said “Re-e-e-pent! For the Kingdom of God is at hand!”

Do you know who he is?
I’ll give another clue,
He was a prophet of God from the Old to the New,
He baptized in the Jordan and told Jesus, “Baptize me,
Unworthy am I to unloose the straps upon Your feet.”

*A voice was crying in the wilderness,
A voice was crying in the wilderness,

Repent! Repent! Repent!

This man that we know of is a cousin of our Lord,
A king whose name is Herod took his head off with a sword.

Now do you know who he is?
I don’t think you can miss.
His name is John the Baptist and he wants you to do this:

R-E-P-E-N-T,
R-E-P-E-N-T,
Repent! Repent! Repent!
